

PLEXUS CONFERENCE 2026 · SPONSORSHIP

Reach biomedicine's next leaders in a room built for 100.

Plexus is a networking-first conference for the next generation of biomedicine. The room is small on purpose: the 2026 edition is capped at 100 seats. Partnering puts your organization in front of young physicians and scientists from Croatia and abroad, with real access rather than a logo lost in a crowd.

WHY SPONSOR PLEXUS

Skip to main content

audience,
a mutual return.

Plexus connects Croatian and global biomedicine in both directions. Sponsors gain early visibility with the people who will define the field, while their support keeps the conference open to the students and young professionals who need it most.

The next generation, up close

Primarily young physicians, scientists, and medical students, joined by established clinicians and researchers. These are the people who will shape the next decade of biomedicine, and you meet them early.

Croatian and international reach

An audience drawn mostly from Croatia and substantially from abroad, in one bilateral gathering. Your brand reaches Croatia and the world across the same network we exist to connect.

Visibility with real impact

Sponsorship keeps the conference free to attend and helps bring young talent into the room. Your support is visible on stage and online, and it is felt by the people it reaches.

Choose the level that fits your goals.

Each tier builds on the one before it, from a clear, visible presence to naming the conference itself. Prices are anchors for Plexus 2026. We are glad to tailor a package to what you want to achieve.

WHO YOU REACH

A small room, by design.

Plexus is networking first: lectures, panels, and fireside chats, with the speakers kept in the room and within reach. Capping the 2026 edition at 100 seats is deliberate, so a partner is present for real conversations.

01 Mostly young biomedical professionals

Young physicians and scientists, plus established physicians, scientists, and medical students.

02 Crossing borders, together

Geography matters. Romania, substantially from abroad, in one bilateral gathering with genuine cross-border reach.

03 2026 focus: AI in medicine

The room is centered on where medicine is heading, drawing the people most engaged with what comes next.
